

Committee: Reading to Learn

Our Mission

To instill the concept of “reading to learn” to students.

To encourage students to share their experience and enrich their own life through reading.

Rationale

We believe that

1. reading forms an integral part of our everyday life for pleasure, practical and social purposes.
2. competence in and the passion for reading is essential for life-long independent learning.
3. extensive reading will expand the horizons and broaden the mind of students.

Long-term Plan

1. Enhance life-long independent learning through reading.
2. Facilitate reading across the curriculum and connect students’ learning experiences.

Main Emphases in 2014/15

1. To raise students’ social concern.
2. To develop students’ positive values and attitudes through reading.
3. To promote a reading culture in school.
